

ROCK 101 INSTRUMENT RENTAL CONTRACT

By renting an instrument from Rock101, you agree to the following terms and conditions.

Rental Period: The rental period begins on the date of instrument pickup and continues until the instrument is returned.

Monthly Rental Charges: Rental charges are applied every month and are charged on the first day of each month. The rental fee for the first month will be prorated if the instrument is rented on a date other than the first of the month.

Prorated Charges: If the instrument is rented on a date other than the first of the month, the rental fee for the first month will be calculated based on the number of days remaining in that month. The full monthly rental fee will be applicable from the second month onwards.

Maintenance and Repairs: You are responsible for the proper care, maintenance, and safekeeping of the rented instrument. Any repairs or damages caused by negligence, misuse, or accidents will be your responsibility and may incur additional charges.

Return of the Instrument: The instrument must be returned in good condition, with normal wear and tear accepted at the end of the rental period or when lessons end, whichever comes first. Failure to return the instrument by the agreed-upon date may incur additional charges.

Termination of Rental Agreement: You may terminate the rental agreement at any time by returning the instrument. However, rental fees will not be prorated or refunded for any unused portion of the rental period.

By accepting the instrument rental agreement, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to these terms and conditions.
